DIARY
Executive Officer, DD/I

Thursday, 12 March

25X1A9a

1. Discussed with [REDACTED] the paper prepared by his office on foreign public opinion polls and it was determined that no effort would be made by Mr. Dulles to take this matter up at today's PSB luncheon.

2. [REDACTED] called, somewhat disturbed because there has been no follow-up on the briefing he gave to [REDACTED] et al in the Conference Room recently. At that time it had been mentioned that it would be desirable to repeat the briefing for Mr. Dulles. I told [REDACTED] that I felt this was not an appropriate time and that it would probably be best to wait until after General Cabell had entered on duty here.

3. Attended a showing of a commercial newsreel film dealing with Stalin's death.

4. [REDACTED] informed me that [REDACTED] will give a luncheon on 18 March for [REDACTED] which will probably be followed by a briefing on the organization of the Agency. He is particularly anxious that [REDACTED] attend this luncheon.

[REDACTED] later informed me that he considered such a presentation adequate regarding the DD/I side and felt that there was no need for [REDACTED] to spend a day with our ADs and in our offices.
